New Orleans, June 24 -- What pur orted to be the details of the de ands made by the United States of General Venustiano Carransa, through Carranga's representatives which: rould be admitted to the mediation onterence at Niagara Palls, were given out here today by Fernando Inlesias Calderon, chief of the liberal party of Mexico. He is en route t Washington in connection with the Mexican problem.

Aside from the armistice feature which Carranta refused to consider Mr. Calderen said it was the demand oncerning disposal of religious ques tions and the time when elections should take place, which greatly interested the constitutionalists. According to the statement of the liberal party leader today the United States demanded all property confiscated by the constitutionalists should be returned to the church, that buildings destroyed should be paid that priests should be protected and that priests driven from the country should be allowed to return. To this Carranza replied, according to Cal deron's statement that the tionalist laws of reform provided that state when needed and also that the priests must go.
